

Maintaining Equity in Schools and Districts

From the Boardroom to the Classroom

May 25, 2016

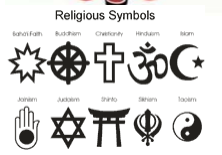

Region X Equity Assistance Center

The land and water area in Region X equals 16.1 million square miles or approximately 10% of the earth's total surface and covers 9 time zones

- 5 U.S. states
- 2 U.S. territories
- 1 commonwealth
- 2 republics
- 4 federated states

Educational Equity

Region X
Equity Assistance Center
of Education Northwest

Languages Spoken

Region X
Equity Assistance Center
of Education Northwest

Diversity Increase

- Homeless students
 - Bi-lingual students
- LGBTQ students
- Students living in poverty

How does equity look in your educational environment?

Plant A

Plant B

Plant C

Technical Assistance

- Support and enhance positive school climate and culture
- Support school safety through the reduction of bullying and harassment
- Increase student engagement

Technical Assistance

- Components of Educational Equity
- Equity in school discipline
- Culturally responsive practices
- Strategies to increase student engagement
 - EL

Creating a Welcoming Environment

Support and enhance positive school climate and culture

- Building support welcoming and inclusive learning environments
- Policy and data review
- Equitable practices in school discipline
- Increase family and community engagement for student achievement

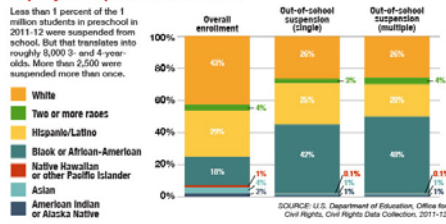

Policy and Data Review

Disparity in Discipline Starts in Preschool

Less than 1 percent of the 1 million students in preschool in 2011-12 were suspended from school. But that translates into roughly 8,000 3- and 4-year-olds. More than 2,500 were suspended more than once.

SOURCE: U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights, Civil Rights Data Collection, 2011-12

Region X
Equity Assistance Center
of Education Northwest

School Safety

Region X
Equity Assistance Center
of Education Northwest

Family and Community Engagement

Student Engagement

Compliance

Region X
Equity Assistance Center
of Education Northwest

Contact Information

Region X
Equity Assistance Center
of Education Northwest

Thank You

